I think the distance A+B is more or less equal. C+B is the most probable, B+D
rather greater distance than former would be formed. - Henry Hutton

For today's lesson, you will write down several “common statements about evolution” and try to classify them as either true or false.

The answers will be revealed at the end of class.

*I think
D
A
B
C
The distance A + B. is more
